COLD WAVE SLOWLY COMING.

If It Goes Away as Slowly, There

Will Be Skating. The cold wave predicted by Local Forecast Official Dunn did not arrive this morning as expected.

"It is coming very slowly, and has been delayed by the seeming determination of the warm weather to hang on," said Mr. Dunn this morning, 'but it looks to me now as if the warm weather must surely be dispelled to-night and to-morrow morning, so that to-morrow will be quite morning, so that to-morrow will be quite cold.

"The cold wave is travelling so slow that when it does reach us it will take several days for it to pass over, so that the skaters of New York and the neighboring towns will probably be able to have a few days' fun."

The cold wave originated in the lake regions, west of the Mississippi, and has been gathering in force for nearly a week. a week.
The mercury registered 47 degrees in the city at 8 o'clock this morning.

Assembly Cases Next Week.

The Sub-Committee is composed of Assemblyman Terry, of Saratoga, Chairman; Vacheren, of Queens, and Mc-Namee, of Ulster.

There are six contests in this city-in the Fifth, Eighth, Fifteenth, Seventeenth, Nineteenth and Twenty-third District, the defeated Republican candidate being the contestant in each case. The ground for contest in the Fifth District was a surprise. Albert W. Baillie, Republican, asks that Samuel J. Foley, Democrat, be susted because he thermometer has registered was a city officer within one hundred days of his election.
